

Instructions:

Complete the Study Plan table below by listing the subjects that you intend to complete in this study period if your reduced study load is approved, and fill in the future study periods with the remaining subjects to complete your course. Do not include failed subjects or previously completed subjects. Failure to complete the study plan could result in your Reduced Study Load application being delayed or not approved.

Refer to the University Handbook to understand your course requirements, check subject availability and prerequisites.
